Press Release

Eiffage Immobilier appoints

Etienne Passani as Chief Executive Officer of Eiffage Immobilier for the Paris Region and Kamal Mahfoufi as Director of Eiffage Immobilier for the Paris Region

Etienne Passani is taking over as Chief Executive Officer of Eiffage Immobilier for the Paris Region.

He joined the Eiffage Group in 2010 and in 2012 became Institutional Relations Director of the Construction branch. In 2019, he was appointed Deputy Chief Executive Officer of Eiffage Immobilier in charge of development, and this is a role he will continue to carry out alongside Philippe Plaza, the Eiffage Immobilier Chief Executive Officer.

Having graduated with a degree in civil engineering from Polytech Clermont-Ferrand engineering school, Etienne has spent most of his career in local government, in the general management of communities.

Kamal Mahfoufi has been appointed Director of Eiffage Immobilier for the Paris Region, joining Olivier Bernard and Frédéric Cartier, who are also Directors of Eiffage Immobilier for the Paris Region.

Kamal started his career in 1994 with Eiffage Construction as Site Supervisor and has since held various posts in the regional offices as well as at head office. He has been Operational Director of Eiffage Immobilier for the Paris Region since 2019.

Kamal has an engineering degree from the École spéciale des travaux publics, du bâtiment et de l'industrie (ESTP) engineering school, and studied business management at the Ecole Supérieure de Commerce de Paris (ESCP) business school.

About Eiffage Immobilier

Eiffage Immobilier, the builder-developer subsidiary of Eiffage Construction, is a major real estate player, with a diversified offer throughout France. It promotes low-carbon design and construction to meet the challenges of sustainable cities. A partner to local authorities in their urban development projects and social operators for their housing schemes, Eiffage Immobilier is also extremely active in the private sector: housing units and serviced residence complexes, hotels, business real estate and commercial town planning. Eiffage Immobilier generated revenues of €929 million in 2020.
